

Minnesota School Shooter Robin Westman is a Fake

by Miles Mathis

First published August 28, 2025

I am going to cut right to the chase here, since I am sick of these. What happened to his head?

I didn't stretch that. So what happened? It reminds us of the alleged picture of Adam Lanza, Sandy Hook fake shooter, doesn't it?

Again, I didn't stretch that, it is straight off the internet. It is obviously heavily distorted. Faked somehow, either in photoshop or by AI. Also reminds us of what they did with Martin Bryant in the Port Arthur fake:

Completely recreated him in CGI as a nutjob. So they have done that again here, stretching Westman's head and turning him into some kind of monster tranny, to fit the current fraud. I guess this event was created by a competing arm of CIA, trying to blackwash trannies or stir your brain.

Alex Jones gave you the clue today on Infowars, though he is still selling the event as real in other articles, asking why Democrats are responding with calls for gun control. Above that first linked piece, we find the title

MASSIVE! MINNESOTA TRANS CULT MEMBER'S FATHER HAS WORKED FOR 29 YEARS AS A TOP-LEVEL CIA/DOD CONTRACTOR

by The Alex Jones Show August 28th, 2025 12:08 PM

Why are so many school shooters' family members linked to the intelligence community?

James Allen Westman works as a Senior Applications Developer for Esri, the leading original geospatial, satellite ground-mapping, GPS co-ordinate system for the Pentagon, Google, and CIA. He has been there almost 30 years. He is now 62, making him rather old to be the father of a 23-year-old shooter. Alex then shows you that Westman's wife Mary Grace Westman worked for the spooky Church of the Annunciation in Minneapolis for many years, the same church where her son allegedly killed people.

The parish was established in 1922. The first Masswas celebrated October 1, 1922 at the Community House located at 4301 Pillsbury Avenue South. The parish then moved to a store at 54th and Garfield. A combination church, school and convent was built by the first pastor, F. J. Lang, and Masses moved to the new church October 18, 1925. A rectory was built, which was first occupied in December 1923. [3]

As you see, aces and eights all over that. Ditto for this:

The perpetrator killed two children (aged 8 and 10) and injured eighteen other people: fifteen children and three adults (parishioners in their 80s).

Officials did not immediately release the names of the deceased children; however, they were identified by their families as 10-year-old Harper Moyski and 8-year-old Fletcher Merkel. [23][21]

Hmmm. A Merkel (as in the Jewish Angela Merkel) and a Moyski. What are the effing odds? Jewish kids going to mass in a Catholic school?

According to Instantcheckmate and Radaris, Mary Grace Westman now lives in Naples, FL, so maybe she didn't approve of this project. Her maiden name is Wilson. She is now 67, so she was 44 when she gave birth to Robin. Unlikely. All his siblings are much older. The Westmans are related to the Gordons, Danelskis, Heims, and Bebergs, telling us the usual thing. Radaris and Instantcheckmate both have pages for Robin Westman, 23, but curiously neither site links him to his own parents, either from his page or their pages. Indicating that they may have made him up completely like Adam Lanza, perhaps using old pictures of his siblings. Adam Lanza never existed, being nothing but a ghost created from his older brother Ryan. And remember, Lanza's father is a top exec at GE, GE being. . . a huge military contractor.

But back to the old Church of the Annunciation.

Effective July 1, 2025, Dennis Zehren became the church's pastor.^[9]

Hmmm, interesting that a guy with a Jewish name became the fake pastor just a month ago.

This reminds me of my paper on the fake church shooting in Madison, Wisconsin, of late last year, which involved the Abundant Life Christian Academy, part of the spooky Fellowship of Christian Assemblies, which I showed you looked like yet another CIA front. And we previously saw churches, cathedrals, and tabernacles in New York City and DC taken over by Intel and turned into propaganda outlets. We can be sure this has been done in all the major cities, and most of the minor ones. See for example my paper on the Golden Suicides, which involved St. Mark's fake church in the Bowery. Also see major spook William Sloane Coffin, admitted to be CIA, who ran the fake Riverside Church in NYC. I have hit him in several papers.

Oh, and our James Westman has links to Madison, since he has worked there as well.

Alex then rushes you past the question he just asked about why we find the CIA links in these events, focusing instead on the tranny question. But I push you back to the original question:

Why are so many school shooters' family members linked to the intelligence community?

Isn't it obvious by now? Even if I hadn't blown the cover of all of them, unwinding them piece by piece, you should have figured it out by now. They are all linked to military and CIA because they are all military and CIA projects. Just like all the fake serial killers, all the school shooters are government fiction sold as real, to sell you police, security, anti-depressants, guns, prepper gear, and a thousand other things you don't need. Alex is right about one thing, though: this IS about installing a police state. As part of the roll out of ever more security, they are proposing getting AI involved in policing:

“I am now about to launch Gideon America’s first ever AI threat detection platform built specifically for law enforcement,” Cohen said, adding, “It scrapes the internet 24-7 using an Israeli grade ontology to pull specific threat language and then routes it to local law enforcement.”

“It’s a 24-7 detective. It never sleeps and it’s going to get us in front of these attacks,” Cohen added.

Note the name. The pre-cogs could have predicted this would be pushed by a Cohen.

Then we find this at the Minnesota Star Tribune:

Church, school at center of shooting is a south Minneapolis landmark Annunciation Church has served south Minneapolis for over 100 years. Its school enrolls kids in preschool through eighth grade.

By Mara Klecker and
Eva Herscowitz

Isn't it a coincidence this Catholic story is being led in Minneapolis by two Jewish ladies? Well, here's another coincidence, then, from ABC News:

Minneapolis shooting: 8-year-old and 10-year-old killed, 17 others hurt at Catholic school

The shooter died at the scene from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

By Emily Shapiro

How did I find those so fast? They are the first two articles footnoted at Wikipedia.

Anyway, I watched that whole video by Alex Jones on “why the school shooters come from CIA families” and guess what, he never gets around to asking that question. He doesn't pursue it at all. Because of course if you pursue it you ask if maybe, just maybe, the CIA is running these events. And no, I don't mean the CIA is training its kids to kill Christians. I mean the CIA is using its own families to manufacture these fictional stories. Why? I have told you that, too. It kills two birds with one stone, because beyond this being a part of the gigantic and long-running Operation Chaos, they can fake the death of this kid and he can go into CIA like his father, but undercover. Do you see how that works? If Robin Westman exists, a faked death is the perfect cover for entering a covert CIA program, isn't it. We saw the same thing a few days ago with Amanda Knox's comrade Meredith Kercher, who also went into CIA/MI6 on this program.

So this is now in the can as well. I will not waste any more time on it, since the fake shooter's father being CIA is the only clue you need to solve this.

Update August 31: Well, what do you know, Alex Jones responded to this paper two days later, and is now trying to sell you the idea that yes, these CIA families really do turn their own children into mass murderers on purpose, as part of a grand Satanic operation related to MKUltra and mind-controlled assassins. He has no evidence for it, is just a statement, but just ask yourself this: which explanation really makes more sense, his or mine? If you are a logician, which theory is more logical? If you are a mathematician, which theory is more likely as a matter of odds? If you are a parent, which theory makes more sense as a matter of parenting: bring your child up to live as you have lived, as a liar and hoaxer in a long line of liars and hoaxers; or purposely sacrifice your child on some Satanic altar of chaos? Just as a matter of continuity, the latter scenario makes no sense, since it creates a stop. If you sacrifice your child, that child cannot have a child and continue the project, so the Phoenix cannot continue to rise. But if you just fake his death, he can rise up and continue the project under a different name, moving Project Chaos forward. So sorry, Alex, your spin doesn't spin. Your explanation doesn't explain. It is just a variant method of fear creation.

That being so, you can read Tucker Carlson's quote in the same segment, which Alex now uses as promotion every day:

“Alex Jones is THE most extraordinary person I have ever met.”

This is just agents building one another up. A huge interconnected web of opposition control, utilizing literally hundreds of thousands of agents in the US alone.

As proof of these mind-controlled assassins, Jones mentions what here? The Church Committee hearings in the 70s and History Channel shows later. Well, there was no proof of mind-controlled assassins of this sort in those hearings, and the History Channel is a CIA front itself. Yes, there is some evidence the military was looking at drugs to enhance soldiers abilities, up to and including turning them into bots, but that is a far cry from CIA or Phoenician Navy using its own children as expendable assassins. Why sacrifice your own innocent children when you can easily grab people out of the army, out of jails, or off the street in the form of orphans, homeless people, or petty criminals? The story breaks down with a record scratch right there, doesn't it?

You will say this James Westman hated his son Robin for being gay and didn't care what happened to him, but if he did hate his son with such passion, his son would hate him back, making James the primary target in any breakdown, not some children Robin didn't even know. They never explain why children are being targeted in these events, though it is obvious, isn't it: it calls out the greatest response in you, the audience. The children aren't being chosen as the target by the fake shooter, they are being chosen as the pretend target by the scriptwriters. What you would expect to see in these events, were they what Alex is telling you they are, is children killing their horrible parents. That would begin to make some sense. But we never see that. Instead we see them targeting the least sensible targets, children they have never met and have no feelings for one way or the other.

Alex then brings up the Navy Yard shooter and the Unabomber as proof of mind-controlled assassins. Sorry Alex, I have already blown the cover of almost all of those, proving they were fake. So if you want to continue to use those, you first need to address my research. You say the CIA has declassified certain documents. Sure they have, but that is meaningless since it is obviously just another layer of this Operation Chaos. Declassifying documents from fake events doesn't count as proof of anything. If the CIA can fake entire decades, it can fake a few confirming documents, can't it?

While Alex is spinning this, he blows his own cover over and over, like here (min. 4:00):

"I haven't seen a case where there wasn't a Pentagon psychiatrist who was best friends with the school shooter for some reason, working on giving them a government job at the CIA, or where the Dad didn't work at the CIA, or the Dad didn't work at DARPA brain-interface, or where both parents weren't behavioral psychologists with machine-human interface with DARPA contracts."

Yeah, true, Alex, but that is easier confirmation of my theory than yours, isn't it? This is a CIA project, but it is the usual project of fakery: Hollywood sold as real. These people are all just actors and the deaths are faked. That is where the real evidence is, as you used to show, Alex, with the moulage and crisis actors and Hoover Universities. These shootings are all sequels of Columbine and Sandy Hook and Aurora and Boston Marathon, which you used to admit were faked but now sell as real. There is a mountain of evidence Sandy Hook was staged and not one speck it was real, and the same can be said for this latest fake out of Minnesota.

Alex then brings up Jolyon West, the MKUltra psychiatrist who was the doctor for Sirhan Sirhan, Patty Hearst, and Jack Ruby. Same problem there, Alex, since I have proved those events were also faked. So Jolyon West scores for my answer, not yours. From Wiki:

West was also active in studying the creation and management of cults and anti-death penalty activism.[1] He was a supporter of the Civil Rights Movement and participated in sit-ins and rallies.[3] He made several trips to South Africa, where he testified on behalf of black prisoners during the attempt to end apartheid. West was a trustee of the American Psychiatric Association and served as a consultant to a variety of governmental organizations, including the United States Air Force, the Peace Corps and the United States Information Agency.

That proves all those things are CIA fronts as well, tying into my papers on MLK, cults, and many other subjects. It means the American Psychiatric Association is a CIA front, so pay attention.

Alex says we now know Sirhan didn't kill RFK, which is true, but he claims it was "the Skunkworks CIA operative behind him." What evidence do we have of that? Zero, since although Sirhan did have a CIA handler, that handler didn't kill RFK since RFK wasn't killed. Alex says we have proof from the autopsy, but that isn't true. The autopsy was the usual fake, run by the notorious Thomas Noguchi, later fired for fraud. As with the autopsy of Sharon Tate, also done by Noguchi, the autopsy of RFK is a flying farce, and isn't proof of anything except that the whole thing was the usual sloppy fake.

Alex Jones is supposed to be a great expert on this stuff, so how is it all this just got by him?
